			CAUTION: The West Cornwall/Calkinstown Rd part of this ride is pretty, but leads you through narrow, winding roads with no shoulders, one lane in each direction, and woods on either side that grow right to the edge of the road. There's very little traffic on this road. However cars rounding a turn would not see bikers till the last minute. Wear bright clothing; ride in groups and take the alternate route below, if you don't wish to cope with this problem.
